A very big thank you to all participants and helpers throughout the year. We have four new participants this month and hope they will be lucky winners. This is a valuable income stream for the upkeep of the Village Hall. The draw takes place every 3rd Friday at the Post Office. BE PART OF IT. It only costs £1.00 per month and payment can be made monthly, half yearly or annually. Contact: Kate Mercer 470556 or Kate Holroyd 470766 for a personal number.

The June Coffee Morning raised £172.00; It was very well attended, even though it preceeded the Queen's birthday celebrations in the afternoon. We had a full turn out of volunteers who helped to set up, work on the day, and who stayed behind to set up the hall for the next event taking place. We had some nice donations of bric a brac, books, bedding plants and vegetables, and help with a regular raffle, thank you so much. Please remember us when you are disposing of the same.

HRH Queen Elizabeth 11 90th Birthday party on 11th June 2016

This was a huge success with 50 people attending. We should like to thank all those who attended and made it a fun afternoon. Thanks go out to Mr Dick Robinson who played the organ for us all to sing to, Mr Bruce Beswick for putting on a rolling film show which included Royal photographs intermingled with old photos of the village and villagers in the past, Carol Skelton for doing a fantastic feast of sandwiches, savouries and cakes, and the Committee and volunteers who gave a lot of their time to ensuring the event went off successfully.

We should also like to include a 'THANK YOU' to the kind people who have sent us thank you cards and notes saying how much they enjoyed the Party.

Don't forget the hall is there for your use, parties and social events are booking in for 2016/17, ring Kate on 01262 470556 to book yours.

THANK YOU

I know I am reflecting the thoughts of many when I say "Congratulations and a big THANK YOU" to all those involved in any way to make it such a successful event. Clearly a lot of thought had gone into planning the event since whoever it was first had the idea to do something to mark The Queen's 90th birthday. The village hall was well prepared with flags, bunting and red, white and blue table covers. The rolling display of old photos, Dick Robinson playing national folk songs that had us trying to remember the words, the birthday cake and wine all helped generate a party atmosphere. The variety of food was unbelievable and first class with a team of happy 'waitresses' on hand to keep us topped up with tea, coffee and wine.

It was simply superb and brilliant. Thank you Kate, Kate, Carol and your team. Bob Stansfield.

VIEW FROM THE VICARAGE

Dear Friends,

I guess you will be glad to know that I do not intend to make any comment re the referendum which has just taken place. We've all heard enough and the decision has been made, so we pray and get on with it.

No, what came to mind was about all the choices and decisions we make in our lifetimes. Many are simple choices, although some folks might not agree, such as what to wear, what to eat, who to ring, who to visit and so on, it's a long list that we could make. Then, of course, more seriously, where we choose to live, what career do we follow, who do we marry, who do we choose as friends..... wow, what a lot of choices.

But how do we choose, what influences our choices, are we persuaded, are we bullied (I hope not).... it's amazing how we decide which way to go. Of course, for me, I pray about my decisions, particularly big decisions, and I try hard to listen carefully. I read my Bible and try to think how Jesus would react, what he would do and say. We are all called to be Christ-like, and it isn't easy at times but I know that God the Father is with me and will help me to make the right decisions. Just standing back and taking some time out to consider is always a good thing to do, especially when we think how busy our lives have become and little time we have to think.

So do just that, take time out to think and consider the decisions you make, if you are Christian, then pray and read your Bible, you will be amazed at the advice you may get.

Love & blessings,
Rev. Barbara
